Artistic Director's Note:

Welcome to our special performance commemorating our 20th anniversary. As I look back on the incredible journey of the past twenty years, I am filled with a profound sense of gratitude for the privilege of being a part of this extraordinary community of families. Over the years, I have had the honor of witnessing dancers grow from timid beginners to confident performers, each step of their journey a testament to their dedication and passion for the art of dance.

What truly warms my heart is seeing the continuation of this legacy as dancers who once graced our stage return with their own children in tow, eager to share the magic of dance with the next generation. It's a beautiful full-circle moment that speaks to the enduring bonds we've forged and the deep sense of connection that defines us as a dance family.

Beyond the dance studio, I've had the joy of watching former students of our studio grow and flourish in their own lives, embarking on new adventures, pursuing their dreams, and always carrying with them the lessons and memories shared within our studio walls.

But perhaps what makes our community truly special is the sense of belonging, of being part of something greater than ourselves. We've laughed together, cried together, and celebrated each other's successes as if they were our own. Through it all, we've become not just dancers and teachers, but a tightly knit family, bound together by our love for dance and our shared experiences.

None of this would be possible without endless support of my team and family. A huge shout out to the Kaleidoscope team: Thank you for all your energy, effort, and positivity. You have made a huge difference in these dancers' lives, and we are all forever grateful. To my parents who believed in me since I was a little girl: Their support and love are unwavering, and they haven't missed one performance, always smiling, and cheering on all of the Kaleidoscope dancers.

To my husband, Jeremy: Your encouragement has been my guiding light and your love my source of strength. In moments of doubt, you've been my unwavering cheerleader, reminding me of my worth and fueling my determination to chase my passion relentlessly. Your sacrifices have not gone unnoticed, and I am deeply moved by the countless ways you've supported me both behind the scenes and at home with Bea and Emmett. Always lending a listening ear, or simply being my pillar of strength when the journey seemed daunting. I am eternally grateful.

I'd like to congratulate our graduating seniors, Ash Eliaser, Anna Luson, Rebecca Morgan, and Denna Pritzker. As you embark on this new chapter of your lives, remember to cherish the memories you've made and the lessons you've learned. Your hard work, dedication, and perseverance have brought you to this momentous occasion, and I couldn't be prouder of all that you've accomplished.

As we mark this milestone of twenty years, I am reminded once again of the profound impact each member of this community has had on my life. To all who have been a part of this journey—past, present, and future—I extend my deepest gratitude. Thank you for your dedication, your passion, and above all, your unwavering belief in the power of dance to unite us all.

Here's to twenty years of memories, milestones, and moments that have shaped us into the family we are today. Thank you for being a part of the Kaleidoscope Dance family.
